Charee Lydia Howe, 22, of Big Bend, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, November 7th, 2025, at her home.

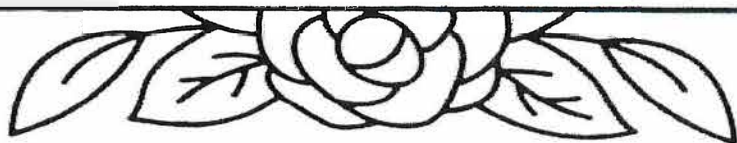

Charee Lydia Howe was born on November 18, 2002, in Bismarck, North Dakota, to Jennifer Eagle and Charles "DK" Howe, Sr. She grew up in the Big Bend area and was lovingly raised by her paternal grandparents, John and Cynthia Howe.

As a young girl, Charee loved playing Barbies with her cousins and enjoyed jingle dress dancing at powwows. She attended and graduated from Crow Creek Tribal School.

Charee had a deep love for her cats and enjoyed spending time laughing and visiting with friends and family. She had a smile that could light up any room. She also loved cooking and learning new recipes, recently mastering the art of making oven bread and dinner rolls. She treasured time spent with her boyfriend, Robert J. Johnson, and her two brothers, Chuck and Eli. At the time of her passing, she was coping with the recent loss of her father, whom she deeply loved.

Grateful for having shared her life are her Brothers; Charles Howe Jr, Eli Howe, Maternal grandparents; Frank and Marilyn Eagle Niece; Red Sky Howe, Nephew; River Moon Howe, Aunts; Janice Howe Adrian, Clarice Jewett, Marice Ashley, Candice Howe, Uncles; Raynard (Loralee) Howe, Gordon Eagle, and Boyfriend; Robert J. Johnson

Don't remember me with sadness,
 Don't remember me with tears,
 Remember all the good times,
 Shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
 That my life it was worthwhile,
 Because I know by loving you
 That I made you smile

When you are walking down the street
 And you've got me on your mind,
 I'm walking in your footsteps
 Only half a step behind
 So please don't be unhappy
 Just because I'm out of sight,
 Remember that I'm with you
 Every morning, noon, and night
