

Mother's Mission

*A mother's job is special
And carries strong demands,
With the molding of the little life
God places in her hands.*

*Though her life may not be glamorous,
The world will see her worth,
For 'tis true: "The hands that rock the Cradle are the hands that rule the earth."*

*To bring her children up in Christ,
Indeed is very much,
For the years will show her value
By the lives, their lives will touch.*
