

Sister:

*A million times I thought of you
A million times I cried.
Only if the champions could have saved you
you would never have died.
I never thought I would lose you but I guess I was wrong.
I knew our love was strong
I wanted to say a few words about you but I never got a chance to.
This is the only way I could say it.*

*“Sister, thank you for being there for me in so Little time and from the bottom of my heart,
You and I will tag up again in Heaven and never be apart.”
Love you Jada*

Mother:

*You always took care of me in good times, as well as bad.
You were there to wipe my tears
when I was hurt or sad.
You were always patient with me
even when I was mean and cruel.
You always taught me to follow
the Golden Rule.
So carry this heart of mine with you wherever you may be to remind you, Mother, that I love you from now to eternity.
Thank you, Mother, for doing your best and for the life that you've given me.*

Love you Mom

Daughter

If I had a little girl, I would tell her that there will be good days and bad days, and that she should be grateful for them all. I would tell her that she is always protected, and no matter what she does, she will always be loved. I would tell her to be kind to all people, even when they are not kind in return. I would tell her that she did not have to rely on people for her good, that she could withdraw all that she needs from Heaven. I would tell her to always tell the truth in the way she would want to hear it; always remember where she came from and the people who helped her along the way. The most important thing I would want my little girl to know is she must put God first if her mind and heart as they are to be in order.

I love you Jada
