

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered "Come with me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away
Although we loved her dearly,
We would not make her stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

LaVera Mairé (LeBeau) Levell, 72, of Carter Lake, IA and formerly of LaPlant, passed away Tuesday, April 08, 2014 at the Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, NE.

LaVera LeBeau Levell was born to Lucille (Ziegler) LeBeau and Phillip LeBeau at the old Cheyenne Agency on March 27th 1942.

In her younger years, she attended boarding school until she joined her mother and stepfather, John Frenier', who was in the army and stationed in Europe. Throughout her life she has lived in Germany, South Dakota, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Nebraska and eventually settled in Carter Lake, Iowa, where she then married Jack Levell and together they raised four kids Antoinette (LeBeau) Sackett, Lucille (Lebeau) Briggs, Jack Levell II, and Melissa (Levell) Sapienza.

She was an adventurous woman that always enjoyed traveling. In the early years, she and Jack enjoyed riding motorcycles and traveling across the country visiting places such as Utah, Nevada, California, Oregon and South Dakota to attend various motorcycle rallies and bike events. In the later years, she traveled in her motor home every August back to her home in South Dakota to visit her family. She also enjoyed visiting Deadwood every year with her daughters and sister. Over the last couple of years she had taken a liking to going on cruise ships to see the world with her children. Together they visited Alaska, Jamaica, Cayman Islands, and Mexico.

Her hobbies included playing bingo, doing crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, arguing with her grandson Jacky, and in the summer she was always out in the garden planting more flowers. Most of all she enjoyed being surrounded by her family. She was loved by many and she always welcomed guests into her home where the coffee was always on.

LaVera is survived by three daughters and one son: Antoinette LeBeau Sackett (Anthony), Lucille LeBeau Briggs (Perry), Melissa Levell Sapienza (Al), and Jack Levell II (Sheri); ten grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; three brothers: Henry (Sherry) LeBeau, Corbin LeBeau, and Robert Pretty Boy; two sisters: Wendy LeBeau (Terry O'Neil) and Karen LeBeau Garreau (Jeff).

She is preceded in death by parents Phillip and Myrtle, and Lucille and John; ten brothers: Gilbert, Kermit, Fain, Dyle, Lyle, Keven, Berend, Curtis, Dean, and Laurent (Beanie); and three sisters: Lillian, Collette, and Francine.

She will always be remembered and loved by her family and friends.

She is now with Jack, riding off to see her family!

In Loving Memory
