

A Baby's Goodbye

Mommy...

You may not understand why I had to leave,
But God had a plan made special for me,
I... was only with you for a small time but your sweet voice will always echo in my mind,

God said I had to go,
Be by his side, to be a guardian angel, so don't you cry if you ever feel
down or sad,
just remember I'm next to you...
Smiling and holding your hand,
I have to go now...

To help a baby in need.
Mommy...

He's small like me don't cry mommy,
we'll see each other soon one day...

And when we do, we'll have a chance to play!

Melissa Ann Two Hearts was born on January 14, 2015 in Sioux Falls. She spent the first part of her life in Sioux Falls until she moved with her family to Pierre when she was three months old. Melissa was always happy. She rarely cried, and if she did, it was only for a bottle, a diaper change, or someone to play with. She loved standing up, observing everything around her, and playing with her sister. Melissa would never smile for a picture, but she always smiled for everyone else—especially her sister, Kiriyam. Even if Kiriyam wasn't nice to Melissa, she still enjoyed giving her kisses, laying with her, and playing with her. Melissa never took interest in cartoons but instead enjoyed watching tidbits of the Big Bang Theory. She learned to laugh at just four months and was always playing with her feet. Words cannot explain how precious Melissa was; she was loved by many, and her smile will forever stay in our hearts.

Melissa's life will be cherished by her mom, Tamara Two Hearts of Pierre; her dad, Taylor Black Cloud of McLaughlin; her sister, Kiriyam of Pierre; her grandparents: Todd (Verna) Two Hearts of Eagle Butte, Karen Paulson of Sioux Falls, Donna and Edward Black Cloud of McLaughlin, Angela Chasing Hawk and Ian Cook of Eagle Butte, Vincent Chasing Hawk of Eagle Butte, Chad Two Hearts of Eagle Butte, Robin Keeble of Sisseton, and Michelle Two Hearts of Fargo; her aunts: Camara Two Hearts of Rapid City and Brenda Creek of Sioux Falls; her great-grandparents: Emery Two Hearts Sr. of Aberdeen, Violet Black Cloud of McLaughlin, Hattie Ducheneaux of Eagle Butte, Linda Eagle Horse of Alabama, and Bella Meeter and Fred Little Dog of Marksville; her cousin, Kayliegh Two Hearts of Rapid City; and numerous other friends and relatives.

Melissa was preceded in death by her great-grandmother, Verna Meeter; her great-grandfather, Curtis Chasing Hawk; and her cousin, Chase Chasing Hawk.
