

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for I am now free.
I'm following the journey Tunkasila has laid, you see.
I took his hand when I heard his call.
I turned my back and left it all.
They called for me, I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of that day.
If my leaving has left a void,
Then fill it with all the happiness and joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.
Do not burden yourselves with sorrow.
I wish you all the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I cherished so much.
Good friends, good times, and the love of my life's touch.
I am with my other family now, do not cry for me.
I am at peace now, I hope this you can see.
Do not lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and bring peace to thee.
Tunkasila wanted me now...He set me free.

NATIVE AMERICAN SOLDIER

In a crowd you're bound to spot him, he's standing so very tall, not too much impresses him; he's seen and done it all.
His hair is long, his eyes are sharp, but his smile's a little blue.
It's the only indication of all the hell he has been through.
He belongs to a sacred brotherhood, always faithful 'til the end.
He has walked right into battle and walked back out again.
Many people think him foolish for having no regrets about having lived through many times others would forget.
He's the first to go and last to know, but never questions why,
On whether it is right or wrong, but only do or die.
He walked a path most wouldn't take and he lost much along the way,
But he thought a lot of freedom, it's a small price to pay.
Yes, he has chosen to live a life off the beaten track,
Knowing well each time he was called, he might not make it back.
So, next time you think of Seborn Iron Hawk think of him standing proud and true,
Be grateful for all he's given; he's given it for you.
You never had to ask him what it was like to be in war;
Just thank God that it's your country that he was fighting for.
Always remember what he's been through what he has all seen in that shade of green, remember him for having the guts to be a United States Marine.
