

James 2:17

*Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above,
and cometh down from the Father of lights,
with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.*

Heaven Needed a Grandma

*So many things of grandma I miss
Her gentle hug and tender kiss.
I still can feel her warm embrace,
And picture yet her loving face.*

*A grandma's tasks are never done,
And Heaven must have needed one.
For Angels came and took her hand,
And led her to God's Promised Land.*

*She's surely kept quite busy there
While brushing little angel's hair,
And making sure they're dressed just right,
Not staying out too late at night.*

*Although there's a sadness, this I know
She's waiting there her face aglow.
I close my eyes and I can see
Her arms still open wide for me.*

Carol Ann Thompson, 79, of Eagle Butte, surrounded by her loving family, entered the Spirit World on Saturday, April 23, 2016 at the I.H.S. Hospital, Eagle Butte.

Carol Ann Blue Coat was born December 25, 1936 in Whitehorse, SD to Robert and Lillian (Horse with Horns) Blue Coat. She married Franklin David Thompson and to this union two sons were born, whom she loved and honored tremendously, Gregory Briney Thompson and Marty Lewis Thompson. Over the years, Ann would care not only for the sons she loved so much, but her grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and hunka family - whom she would always open her home to, with warm laughter and hot food. She was never one to turn away a person in need.

Ann worked all her life in the service of others; from cooking for the elderly and little ones at the Nutrition Center and the Headstart, to caring for the elderly in the Manor. She also held various jobs throughout her lifetime and always took pride in her work, and care for others with respect and dignity. She was always willing to volunteer as well, spending much of her elderly life helping in the Soup Kitchen, cooking at Sundance, and helping to cook and serve for families during their trialing times; you could always count on Ann to lend a helping hand.

Ann loved attending Sundance, Wacipi, visiting on the phone with friends and families, and all who kept her company each day; whether it was while having a cup of coffee and visiting at her kitchen table, or miles away on the phone. Her family and friends will miss her voice and laughter.

Her survivors include her sons: Greg (Shelly) Thompson of LaPlant, Marty (Leslie) Thompson of Eagle Butte, Richard Red Elk of Eagle Butte; daughters: Gayle Dupris of Eagle Butte, Carrie and Carla Blue Coat of Eagle Butte, Nancy Red Dog of Eagle Butte, Candace High Elk of Eagle Butte, and Sylvia (Jim) Picotte of On The Tree; grandchildren: C.C. Smith, Skye Walker Lewis, Tammy Joy, Kayo Ann, Kaitlyn Rose, Jared Charles, Jeffrie Marie, Jamie Lynn, Andrew Smith, Joann Kills Crow and Richard "Bubba" Smith; great grandchildren: Kayson, Logan, Jarred, Treyton, Kemper, Mahpiya, Mikaiden, Akicita, Lennix, Shannon, Jayke, Areenah Jo, and two on the way - Carol loved all of her grandchildren dearly; sisters: Margie Blue Coat and Rose Bad Hand; brother, Joe Blue Coat and Hunka niece, PJ Crouch.

Carol Ann is preceded in death by her parents: Lillian and Robert Blue Coat; her brothers, Jerry and Robert Archie Blue Coat; sisters: Alberta Hawk Eagle, Ruby Red Dog and Cora Mae Marshall; and grandchildren, Logan and Baby Thompson.
