LITTLE ANGELS

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above, We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love.
 For no heartache compares with the death of one small child, Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.

Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold,
 So He picks a rosebud
 before it can grow old.
 God knows how much
 we need them,
 and so He takes but a few,
 To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.

Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try,
 The saddest word
 mankind knows
 will always be goodbye.
 So when a little child departs,
 we who are left behind,
 Must realize God loves children,
 Angels are hard to find.
