

John 14:1-3

*Let not your heart be troubled:
Ye believe in God, believe also in Me.
In my Father's house are many mansions;
If it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again and receive you unto myself;
That where I am, there you may be also.*

My sister, Kimberly Dawn, remained strong, we all prayed, everything will be fine. But in the end, Tunkasila knew it was just her time. She brought us joy, happiness, jokes, and laughter with her beautiful smile every day. All of us knowing, she lived life her way. And it's all good, don't let it be misunderstood. Kimberly Dawn loved us all. Some gave some, Op'o la Win gave us her all, unconditionally, even so tenderly. Yup, that's definitely our Kimberly. My sister, my bro, all that's left is a big empty hole. Now that you've passed on, with Mom. Our memories is all that will live on.....Lakota strong. You never backed down from the fight, you gave it all your might. You stood tall, you stood proud, high above it all...Kimberly Dawn, Op'o la Win... You mean the world to me... Smiling, with everlasting beauty, love, joy, brighter. 'Til we meet again, sister, in that happy place, is where you now wait for all our fate. To pray, knowing that one day, we all get to see your face, sister....your precious memories will never wither. I love you, my sister, forever and ever...

Kimberly Archambault, 30, of Eagle Butte, passed away, Friday, March 10, 2017 at Rapid City Regional Hospital.

Kimberly Dawn Archambault, Op'o la Win, blessed our lives on September 15, 1986. She came into this world by her loving, caring, kind parents, George "Oscar" Archambault, Jr. and the late Cheryl Eileen Johnson. She grew up on the Cheyenne River along with her brother, Michael Archambault; sisters, Marie and Momoree; and cousins: James and Kendell Skinner, and Latoya, Marcus, and Wyatt Lapointe.

Kimberly went to school on Cheyenne River, in Pierre SD, and in Bismarck, ND. In her young adult years she worked as a flagger, with her friends, for a road construction crew and also as a fire fighter for Cheyenne River. During her off seasons, she pursued her education. She graduated with her G.E.D and was currently chasing her dream in pursuing a business administration degree.

Those close to her knew that she was loved dearly, fought hard, laughed, cried and shared in people's pains and hard times. She was always doing her best to cheer her friends up with her beautiful smile, her laughter, her jokes and reminiscing about good times. She was, still is, and always will be, loved by the ones she loved, cared for, and thought of most highly. Auntie Mary Garter was by her side until the end.

She will be dearly missed by all who came to know Kimberly as a daughter, sister, niece, takoja, cousin, companion, and a friend. She no longer suffers and no longer has to walk a hard road. All here on unci maka, her relatives know that she is in a better place, back home with tunkasila, our mom, Cheryl, and all our relatives.

Kimberly is proceeded in death by her mother, Cheryl Eileen Johnson; baby sister, Larae Lee; maternal parents: Arlene Eileen Scott and Tyron Johnson; grandpa, Grover Scott; grandma, Adelia Birdnecklace; paternal parent; George Archambault, Sr.; uncle, Curtis Archambault; Lala Moses Garter and grandma, Amy Counting Garter.
