

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me,
let me go,
I have many things
to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself
to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave to you my love.
You can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"

James Andrew Brings Plenty, age 52, of Dupree, passed away Tuesday, March 28, 2017 at I.H.S. Hospital, Eagle Butte.

James Andrew Brings Plenty was born March 16, 1965 in the community of Thunder Butte, SD to Benjamin and Phoebe (Clown) Brings Plenty. While growing up, he lived in Oakland, CA; Roswell, NM; Idaho Falls, ID; Glasgow, MT; Eagle Butte and Dupree, SD.

Andy received his GED and went on to attend CRST Community College and finally received his degree in social work from Standing Rock College. Andy had numerous jobs but used his skills throughout his life making Lakota Artwork. He was very proud of his work and many pieces are owned by his family and friends.

Andy met Jeannie Haskell in 2005 and they lived in Dupree where he spent the remaining years of his life. He loved to laugh and help people.

Andy is survived by his daughter, Grace Webb of Eagle Butte; brothers, Stephen (Rebecca) Brings Plenty of Rapid City, and Roderick "Troy" Brings Plenty of Cheyenne River; and special friend, Jeannie Haskell of Dupree.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Phoebe Clown and Benjamin Brings Plenty; and one brother, Duane Marcelle.
