We will always remember you.
We will see you again.

*God's finger touched her, and she slipped away
From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day;
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes, and
Whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
To a beautiful garden this friend has gone.
To a land of perfect rest;
Though she is gone, she still lives on
In the garden of memory.*

She used stories from her Lala Silas Yellow Owl to pass on teachings and values of life. They would begin with "Ehani Lala Heye sa" (long time ago, grandpa used to say). She also enjoyed her daily morning coffee visits with her sister Linda Marrowbone.

In 2013 Unci Pauline moved to the Medicine Wheel Village in Eagle Butte. While there she enjoyed visiting with residents and participating in activities such as the staff's live dance videos.
