

SET ME FREE

There's a calmness to the air outside
Watch the sun color the site of a morning sky
But all I see are clouds of darkest grey
A full eclipse to veil the start of another day
Hear the laughter as the children smile
Hold a newborn close and dream for a little while
But all I hear is death knock at my door
And think of painful journeys our young must endure
Set me free tonight
Touch the water with your own two hands
Let the freedom bell bring calm to a troubled land
But all I feel are my two feet in chains
I know the system, but I can't figure out the game
Set me free tonight
Take it all away from me, take it all away
Set me free tonight

John 11:35
Jesus wept.

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Trevor Jo High Elk was born March 9, 2004 in Pierre, SD to Jessie High Elk. His aunty, Tre' Luna, named him Trevor and aunty, Keisha High Elk, gave him his middle name Jo.

Trevor, as he was known to all his family and friends, grew up in his younger years in the Eagle Butte and Dupree areas where he attended head start, kindergarten, elementary and high school. He played grade school basketball and football for the Dupree Tigers.

Trevor enjoyed fishing down at the Moreau River and hunting out in the country in the Thunder Butte area.

Trevor enjoyed playing video games, building Legos, drawing, listening to music, and playing his guitar. When he was a toddler, he always carried around his "beesh beesh and kachow", (blanket and Lightning McQueen car).

Trevor had a deep love for his family, especially his grandmother Audrey, who raised him since the age of one. His undying love for his grandmother was a bond only shared by a grandson for his grandmother whom he loved with all his heart. Whenever his grandmother needed assistance with chores around the house, Trevor was always willing to give a helping hand.

He truly loved his little sister Maliyah, his aunties, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and his Papa, Gerald.

Trevor will be truly missed by his family and friends and will be remembered for his teasing, laughing and his big smile.

Trevor is survived by his mother, Jessie High Elk (Desmond Conica), Cannonball, ND; grandma, Audrey High Elk, Dupree, SD; grandfather, Gerald High Elk, Dupree, SD and Janice Bass, Winnebago, NE; sister, Maliyah High Elk, Dupree, SD; brother, Este'ban High Elk, Dupree, SD; aunties: Tracy (Lupe) Luna and family, Provo, UT, Keisha High Elk and family, Dupree, SD, Mony High Elk and family, Dupree, SD, Melaine Tomko and family, Eagle Butte, SD, Angel High Elk (Amber) and family, Eagle Butte, SD; uncles: Jobe Cruz and family, Clarksville, TN and Perry Cruz and family, Rapid City; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by Maternal Great Great Grandparent Julie Ward; Great Grandparents Percy and Rose Dupris, Sr; Grandma Elverna Dupris; Grandpas Percy Dupris, Jr., Richard Young, Sr., and Federico "Juan" Martinez; Uncles Dion Knife, Delano Waloke; and Paternal Great Great Grandparents Jobe and Estella High Elk; Great Grandparent Corrine Mae High Elk; Grandpas Carl Dean Red Bird, Benedict Red Bird, and Perry Bruce Kills First; Aunt Nicole M. High Elk and Cousin Kubria "Baby Rain" Flying By-Tomko.
