

"For no soul can ever
be replaced, and death
claims a beauty and a magnificence that will always be missed."

Mildred L Semon, 80, of Bridger, left this world peacefully on Tuesday, February 1, 2022 at Hans P. Peterson Memorial Hospital, Philip.

Mildred Louisa Red Bull-Semon was born at Old Agency, SD to Daniel and Marcella (Little Dog) Redbull. She was a Cheyenne River tribal member. She was a fluent Lakota speaker. She loved beading and loved traveling and being on the road. She was known for her Lakota storytelling and knew all the history. She had a heart of gold and loved all of her friends, family, relatives, and especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mildred "Midge/Midgie" was a caring wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and friend. She will be dearly missed by everyone who knew her.

Mildred is survived by her children: Melvin, Pam, Craig (Anitra) Semon; grandchildren: Whitney (Steven) Semon, Wanda (Diego) Semon, Meleena (Anthony) Semon, Nathaniel Semon, Amanda Friesen, Mindy Semon, Fancy Red Eyes, Michael (Tammy) Marshall, Melody, Daniel, Emmanuel, David, and Hunter Semon; great grandchildren: Paria and Payton Semon, Kasidee and Alecia Mestes, Kaylee and Kobaiah Jones, Daisa Alonzo, Sadie Semon, Nataliyah Gomez, Azariah, Aneelem, and Luca, Iron Thunder, Cattleya Semon, Ezekiel and Josiaha Friesen, Joyce Ann, Tallulah, and Cooper Marshall; great grandchildren AJ, Alex, Rhonna, Caysen, and Lillian, Aaron, Aaurora, and Aayden.

Mildred was welcomed home to the spirit world by her parents, Daniel and Marcella Red Bull; husband, David Semon; brothers: Melvin Joe and Paul Red Bull; sisters: Philomene Charges In Winter and infant sister, Ramona Red Bull; great granddaughter, Kenzie Mestes.
