

*God will make a way
where there seems to be
no way, He works in ways,
in ways we cannot see,
He will make a way
for me; He will be my guide, hold me closely to his side, with love
and strength for each day,
He will make a way.*

Peggy Rose Knife was born to Bevin Sr., and Cecelia Cook Circle Eagle at Cheyenne Agency on July 17, 1951. She grew up in the community of Red Scaffold and received her education in Red Scaffold, Eagle Butte, Saint Mary's, and Syracuse, New York where she graduated in 1969. She earned college credits from Black Hills, SiTanka, and Northern State, Aberdeen.

Her employment was with the Headstart Program in Red Scaffold and Eagle Butte, and Takini elementary school.

She married Ted Knife Sr. and to this union one child was born Mary Magdeline and grandson Matthew Knife. She also gained stepchildren, Ted Jr., Wendell, Randall, Georgette, and the late Dion Knife.

Peggy and Ted were very active servants of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, traveling and singing throughout South Dakota and other states. She was also active in the Red Scaffold Congregational Church. She was always willing to help with any family, church activities, and community events. Red Scaffold was her pride and joy.

Peggy and Ted were the godparents for their niece Desiree Rose Clown and parents to Conroy and Rolyann Clown. They were also godparents to Randon L. Clown, Jenny Halfred, and Ronda Charging Cloud. Delight Halfred lived with them for many years. Later, Peggy depended on the twins Krystal and Krystan to help her. She was also a godmother to Kaven.
