

The Day God Took You Home

In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you pass away.
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us,
To suffer that again.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil,
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Jory Teddy (Seirs) Running Wolf, 31, of Eagle Butte, began her journey to the spirit world Monday, December 19, 2022, at Avera McKennan Hospital in Sioux Falls.

Jory was born October 16, 1991, at Rapid City Regional Hospital. When Jory was born she was very tiny, and her sisters and aunties loved carrying her around. She was the youngest of the family. When she was a little girl Jory enjoyed riding her bike, skateboarding, and her pogo stick. She said that she was going to break the record. When she was a teenager Jory liked to be with her friends and cousins. When she stayed inside, she liked to write about her day and the places she wanted to visit and all the concerts she would go to. Jory's favorite place to eat was the Chinese Buffet in Pierre and Taco Bell in Rapid City. Jory liked to tease her friends and family because she wanted to feel close to them. She was a kind person, and many are going to miss the sound of her laugh and seeing her smile.

After graduating from high school in 2010, Jory married Trastin Longbrake. They had four beautiful daughters: Alexis Loren, Amazyn Lou Raquel, Eveleigh Pystal Allison, and Rowan Kohal Longbrake.

Jory worked temporarily as a dental assistant. She really enjoyed her time there and making friends with the staff. She also worked at the homeless shelter. She liked meeting different people, and she was interested in all the stories they told her.

Jory leaves behind her four daughters: Alexis, Amazyn, Eveleigh, and Rowan; parents: Charlotte Wolf and Bill Seirs; brothers and sisters: Dain W. Curley, Arlana Running Wolf, Lynn Running Wolf, Sara Condon, Tina Seirs, Billie Jo Seirs, Tessa Seirs, and Aaron Seirs; and many cousins and other relatives.

Jory was preceded in death by her grandmother, Eva Roberts; grandfather, Francis Running Wolf; and auntie, Carol Moran.
