

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Mark Tracy High Elk, 61, of Eagle Butte, passed away Sunday, June 2, 2024, at Cheyenne River Health Center, Eagle Butte.

Mark lived in Rapid City for many years, and while living there, he worked for a construction business building and constructing bridges all over South Dakota. He attended college at Western Dakota Tech. He was a Sundancer, and he danced for five years on different reservations.

Mark and Clarice were married through the pipe ceremony.

His love for his mother was unmatched. He would check on her, as he often worried about her. He eventually moved home to help take care of her. He was a very quiet person but very caring in his own way. He loved all of his family, children, brothers, sister, nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

Mark enjoyed his crossword puzzles and television shows, as well as sharing a coldie with his "Kolas".

Mark is survived by his mother, Margie Blue Coat; two sons: Roderick Wade High Elk and Myron Wade; siblings: Marvin High Elk Jr., Candice High Elk, Merle High Elk, Samuel High Elk; and aunts: Mona Fischer, Goldie Stroup, Doris Red Bird, Elvira High Elk.

He was preceded in death by his father, Marvin L. High Elk Sr.; (LaLa) Isaac High Elk, (Unci) Adelia (Thin Elk) High Elk, (LaLa) Robert Blue Coat Sr., (Enci) Lillian (Horse With Horn) Blue Coat; brother, Jamie Lewis Clown; and uncles: Moses High Elk, Fred High Elk, Lavern High Elk, Roderick High Elk, Alvin High Elk, and Dawayne Standing Bear.

IN LOVING MEMORY

MARK TRACY HIGH ELK
