The Family Chain

If love could have saved you -

You would not have died.

If tears could bring you back

You'd be by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

But you did not go alone;

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

God takes us one by one

And breaks the family chain.

But somewhere in a better land

Our chain will link again.

Nona High Bear, 57, of Eagle Butte, passed away Monday, March 3, 2025, the result of a house fire in Eagle Butte, SD.

Nona Kay High Bear was born March 23, 1967, in Eagle Butte, SD to Richard Sr. and Sylvia (Blue Arm) High Bear.

Nona met Jack Red Bear and had seven children: Jacquelyn, Desiree, Crystal, Alicia, Larae, and Kaylen Red Bear and one son, Jarrett High Bear. She also had two more daughters, Lanae and Lisa. She later met Travis Little Star and had Tyler, Tyanna, and Travis Jr.

Nona was a homemaker all her life. She enjoyed spending time with all her friends and the homeless along with her dog, Zoey, whom she really loved.

Nona is survived by her daughters: Jacquelyn and Desiree Red Bear, Eagle Butte, Crystal Red Bear, Watertown, Alicia Red Bear, Arlington, TX, LaRae Baumgarten, Lemmon, Kaylen Barker, North Carolina, Tyanna Little Star, Eagle Butte, Lisa Antoine, Rosebud, and Lanae Stuart, Minot, ND; sons: Jarrett High Bear, Pierre, and Tyler Little Star and Travis Little Star Jr. both of Eagle Butte; numerous grandchildren: siblings: Pauline, Patricia, Daniel, Fawn, Favon, Jolene, Audy, and Waylon High Bear, all of Eagle Butte, Dustin Black Moon, Oregon, Jerry Eagleman, Sioux Falls, and Elizabeth and Shane Oakie, Red Scaffold.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Richard Sr. and Sylvia High Bear; brothers: Richard Jr. and Woodrow High Bear; sister, Nicole High Bear; and many other loved ones too numerous to name.
