

This Is Not Goodbye

I did not want to leave you
 It was just my time to go
 I know your heart is breaking
 So, I need to let you know
 That although you can no longer see me
 I'll be forever by your side
 I promise time will numb the pain
 And help dry the tears you've cried
 You can reach me in your memories
 Just think of me, I will be there
 In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear
 Where we didn't have a care
 Please carry on and live your life
 I beg of you to try
 Just know we'll meet again someday
 As this is not goodbye

Theresa Comes, 59, of Chaska, MN, and formerly of Little Eagle, SD, passed away on Wednesday, April 2, 2025, at St. Francis Regional Medical Center in Shakopee, MN.

Theresa Marie Comes was born on October 10, 1965, to Martina (Red Legs) Hawk Eagle and Sylvester Comes. She was raised in Little Eagle, SD. Theresa earned her GED from Sitting Bull College and went on to study business technology there. She was a loving mother to six children: Codi and Shane Comes, Jerome Yellow Earring, JoLanda, Ronica, and Richard Gerry.

Theresa was deeply connected to her culture and fluent in the Lakota language. In 2002, she moved to Minnesota, where she met and married the love of her life, Ignacio Ramirez. Together, they enjoyed traveling, exploring new places, and spending precious time with their grandchildren.

Theresa had a passion for sewing and was known for her tidiness and organizational skills. She had a wonderful sense of humor and was cherished by many friends and family members. Thoughtful and generous, she always brought gifts for others. She had a big heart and will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Theresa is survived by her husband, Ignacio Ramirez; her children: Shane Comes, Jerome Yellow Earring, Codi Comes, JoLanda Comes, and Ronica Gerry; and her beloved grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Martina Hawk Eagle; her father, Sylvester Comes; and her son, Richard Gerry.
