

To Those I Love And
Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"

Karri Lee Little Wounded-St John, or “Bozo” as her dad called her, was born on December 29, 1979, to the late Thurman W. Little Wounded Sr. and JoAnn Red Bear. Karri lived in Dupree and Eagle Butte throughout her childhood and was currently living in Rapid City at the time of her passing.

Karri mainly lived in Dupree while attending school, and she graduated from Dupree High School. While attending high school, she was blessed with her first daughter, Joraynu Jade Condon. She stayed focused while raising her daughter and graduated in 1998. She later had three more daughters: Taylor Paige Bird Horse, Alayna “AJ” St John, and Amiyah St John.

Karri had an outgoing personality and enjoyed having fun and joking. From this she gained a lot of friends, especially many sisters because she grew close to each and every one of them and cared about them. She also had a strong love for animals, taking in stray cats and dogs. Karri was beautiful and full of life. Karri loved the summer, especially being near the water, She loved Christmas and playing pool with her friends. She loved her girls and being grandma to her two grandsons who she loved very much. She also had many nieces and nephews that she loved.

She had various jobs and obtained her CNA certificate, which led her to work at nursing homes, which she loved to do.

Karri is survived by her daughters: Amiyah St John, Alayna St John, and Taylor Bird Horse; grandchildren, Amius St John and Luta St John; siblings: Jonathan (Melanie) Little Wounded, Karmen (Bevin) Little Wounded, Heidi High Elk, Stephanie (Leeann) and Jamari Little Wounded, Thurman Little Wounded Jr., Tristan Little Wounded, Noah Little Wounded, and Brionne Blue Arm; adored grandchildren, Amaius St John and Luta St John; uncle, Jimmy (Charlene) Little Wounded, aunties: Carole Little Wounded, Patti Little Wounded, Ruth Little Wounded, Karen Little Wounded, Jolynn (Servando) Rivera, Dorothy Little Wounded; and on her mother’s side her uncle, Emmanuel Red Bear; aunties, Gloria Laundreaux and family, Cindy Shad and family; all her sister cousins and sister friends; many cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Preceding her in death is her daughter, Jorayna Condon; mother, Joann Red Bear; father, Thurman Little Wounded Sr.; nephew, Trevor Little Wounded; paternal grandparents, Nathan and Flora Little Wounded; maternal grandparents, Emanuel Sr. and Irene Red Bear.
