

The Family Chain

If love could have saved you -

You would not have died.

If tears could bring you back

You'd be by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

But you did not go alone;

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

God takes us one by one

And breaks the family chain.

But somewhere in a better land

Our chain will link again.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow

Of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

Whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times

And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,

To dry before the sun,

Of happy memories that I leave

When my life is done.

In Loving Memory

Andre' Pierce Eberhard was born on Mother's Day, May 12, 2002, in Pierre, SD.

Andre' was an enrolled member of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe and raised on the Cheyenne River Reservation by his father, Galen, with the (sometimes unwanted) help of Gramma Susan, Uncle Kirk, and Neeners (Rikki).

Andre' loved his river days with his Gramma Susan and Poppa Keith. He loved his Minnesota trips with Robb, Kara, Robbie, and Ashten. He was a second grandson to Sylvia and the late Jim Picotte and a second son to Dawn LeBeau.

Honesty Rose, his older sister, was his protector, his rock, his ride or die, best friend, and worst enemy all in one. She made sure he was taken care of first.

In 2007, Sheyenne (Koral) Jandreau was introduced to Andre'. From that day forward, he had a forever mom. Andre' would not let her out of his sight. Camden, Trevor, Honesty, and Andre' became a family unit, the foundation they all needed. It wouldn't be long until Shesha and Austin (Buddy) would join them.

Andre' spent most of his summers with his grandma, Susan and poppa, Keith, at the river and spent numerous hours on the river swimming, fishing, boating, or just playing. He enjoyed time with all his river family.

Andre' attended school in Eagle Butte and he graduated from Cheyenne-Eagle Butte in 2020. He met many of his lifelong friends during this time. People often thought he and Ashten were biological brothers as they were rarely seen apart from each other. He attended Haskell Indian Nations University where he spent time in the gym and with his friends while attending classes.

Andre' was a sports enthusiast. He tried his hand at various sports – he was awarded most dedicated in golf and basketball. He excelled in football, but not until his late high school years. His passion was gaming.

Andre' worked for various entities including Vilas, Ubetcha Wateca, Taco Johns, Kelsie Kay's Coffee Depot, Eagle Storage, and The State Bank of Eagle Butte, where he was employed at the time of his death. Through these positions, he made many friends, some of which became family. He loved his community.

Andre' loved Ahmyli Clark from the minute he met her until the minute he died. He told his dad "She is the love of my life." He loves her entire family. He left behind two fur babies, Bean and Noir.

He is survived by Galen and Sheyenne Eberhard; grandmother, Susan (Keith) Smart; and grandfather, Bill (Ardys) Jandreau all of Eagle Butte; sisters: Honesty Rose Eberhard and Shesha Eberhard both of Eagle Butte; brothers: Camden Jandreau, Eagle Butte, Trevor (Trinity) Bourland, Aberdeen, and Austin Eberhard, Eagle Butte; Uncle Kirk and Aunt Rikki Fasthorse of Eagle Butte; sister/cousin, Bailey (Rey) Cano; nephew/cousin, Alexander Fast Horse; nieces: Mila Clark and Tristan Bourland; nephews: Mateo Bourland and Kole Bourland; Jedadyah, Thiago, and Alonzo Cano; The Payne, Gunville, Ganje, Clark, Ducheneaux, Rousseau and State Bank of Eagle Butte Families; and all of his family and friends.

He is preceded in death by Grandfather Rick Eberhard; Grandmother Gyla Jandreau; Aunt Rocki Pearman; cousins: Baby Fasthorse and Taryn Ducheneaux; hunka grandfathers: Steve Payne and Jim Picotte; mentor, Jeremy Schad; special friends: Thomas Three Legs, Richie Marrowbone, Carli Haskell and Bryanna Ducheneaux-Clown.
