

Colton LaCombe, 4 ever 37, a Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe member, entered the spirit world at 10:59 on September 27, 2026, at Avera McKennan Hospital in Sioux Falls, SD listening to IDN-car. At this time, he became an organ donor saving 5 lives.

Colton Alan LaCombe was born May 21, 1989, to Jackie Holy Bear. When he was just two days old, Jackie entrusted Kim with raising and adopting him.

Colton loved life, his family, and his friends. He enjoyed having a good time and loved laughing. He loved to travel and meet new people along the way. He was a devoted fan of the Minnesota Vikings and enjoyed cheering them on. He also enjoyed bow hunting.

Colton was a proud father to Anthony and Kassandra. He was a son, father, brother, uncle, nephew, grandson, and friend to all who knew him. He was loved beyond measure and will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

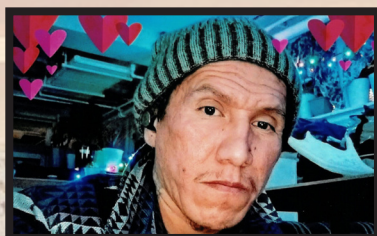

Colton is survived by his mom, Kim; stepdad, Ron Mager; son, Anthony Kent of Merced, California; daughter, Kassandra Longbrake of Rapid City; sisters, Kim Red Fox of Eagle Butte, Anna Rousseau of Sioux Falls, Teiah (Michael) Hall of Butte, Montana, and Shelby Dewald of Sioux Falls; brother, Jase Dewald of Sioux Falls; adoptive father, Earl LaCombe of Butte, Montana; and numerous grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and many friends he met throughout his travels.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am a diamond glint on snows
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you wake in the morning hush I am the swift uplifting rush
I am quiet birds in circling flight
I am the fish swimming in the lake
By the soft starlight at night
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep*
