

*THE SHEAF OF WHEAT...
SYMBOL OF CHRISTIAN FAITH*

The seeds of faith are sown in the human personality and grow into the mature faith of the Christian man or woman. The sown seed must lose its life in order that it may develop and grow and multiply. So symbolically, a sheaf of wheat is used by Christians to mark the passing of a fellow Christian.

Death is not the end but the beginning of life eternal. The mature grain in the sheaf is the direct symbol of the Resurrection - the life beyond the grave, the fulfillment of the promises of Jesus Christ.

In Loving Memory

Fredrick "Fritz" Myers, 88, of Faulkton, passed away Monday, January 3, 2011, at the Faulkton Healthcare Center.

Fredrick Myers was born October 31, 1922 at Providence Hospital in Faulkton, SD to Edwin and Harriet (Kuhl) Myers. He attended the Taylor Country School until the 8th grade. He then worked on the family farm with his father. Fritz continued farming and ranching the majority of his life.

On June 26, 1946, Fritz married Doris Frasier at St. Thomas parsonage, Faulkton. They raised their family on the family ranch and each of their children attended the same country school Fritz did. Two days prior to Fritz's and Doris 60th wedding anniversary, Fritz joined St. Thomas Catholic Church in Faulkton.

Fritz enjoyed his life immensely. The time he could spend hunting, fishing for bullheads, dancing and spending time with family was always treasured by him. He also loved being the jokester.

Fritz is survived by his wife: Doris of Faulkton; his six children: David of Belle Fourche, Ronald (Linda) of Mobridge, Thomas (Mary) of Spearfish, Connie (Mark) Selting of Kilgore, NE, Richard (Kim) of Belle Fourche and George (Julie) of Belle Fourche; his 16 grandchildren: Keith Myers (Cassidy Oliver), Jason Myers, Dawn (Bob) Tesch, Laura Myers, Jerry (Twila) Myers, Teri (Fred) Kiewel, Shawn Myers, Tommy Myers, Taylor Selting, Jeremy (Jennifer) Myers, Erik (Amber) Myers, Ryan (Jennifer) Bush, Robin Bush, Amber (Terry) Dierkson, and Andy and Adam Ryman; 24 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; and one brother: Brother Bill Myers, OSF of Faulkton.

His parents preceded him in death.
