

*The Lord is my Shepherd:
I shall not want
He maketh me to lie
down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Eileen E. Muehl was born December 27, 1914 at Faulkton, SD to Richard and Cloy (Mueller) Morrow. She attended Faulkton Public School for 12 years, graduating with honors in 1931. She went to Northern Normal Industrial College in Aberdeen in 1933. There she received a Teaching Certificate allowing her to teach in rural schools. She taught six years in Faulk County. In 1939 Eileen returned to Northern Normal Industrial College to receive her state certificate. She then taught seventh and eighth grades in Frederick, SD public schools for three years.

Eileen Morrow married Jacob Muehl on June 5, 1943. They had one son, Steve, born in 1946. They lived on the Muehl farm southeast of Faulkton until 1971 when they retired and bought their home in Faulkton. Jake passed away on May 2, 1983.

Eileen was a member of the St. Thomas Catholic Church, the Altar Society and she was a charter member of the Catholic Daughters of America. She belonged to the Lakeside Country Club of which she became an Honorary Member in 2001. She was an active member and held various offices in these organizations. She had also been a member of the Faulkton Arts Council and the Historical Society.

Eileen liked to bowl, golf and play bridge. She was always interested in school and community affairs. She looked forward to daily coffee with "The Ladies of the Round Table". She was an avid reader and worker of crossword puzzles.

In April of 2008, Eileen moved to the Faulkton Healthcare Center, living there until the time of her death.

Survivors include one son, Steven, of Faulkton and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband, Jake; brother, Delmar; and sister, Marie Boschker.
