

*To Those I Love And
Those Who Love Me*

*When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you Listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you come this way alone. . . .
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"*

Daniel Bau, 56, of Faulkton, passed away Sunday, November 6, 2011.

Dan was born June 18, 1955 to Lorraine (Herren) and Wesley Bau in Huron, South Dakota. He went to school in Doland and lived around the Frankfort area. On September 20, 1974, he married Irene Fisk. They lived at the Lewis Double E Ranch where Dan worked until 1976. He then went to work for Land O' Lakes for 18 years. They eventually moved to a farm SW of Faulkton where he served on the Township Board.

He enjoyed spending time with his granddaughters, playing cards with his family and friends and hunting and fishing.

Survivors include his wife, Irene Bau of Faulkton; daughter, Darlette Bau of Watertown; son, Steven Bau of Faulkton; his three granddaughters: Cassandra, Natalie and Bridgette; one brother, Allen Bau of Frankfort; and three sisters: Rita (Terry) Kissner of Redfield, Barb Bau of Rapid City and Cheryl (Jim) Wilde of Scarville, IA.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother; a niece and nephew.
