Altha Stammer, age 91, of Faulkton, passed away Wednesday, November 28, 2012 at The Meadows in Faulkton.

Altha B. Schilter was born June 29, 1921 in Athol, SD to Herman and Dora (Batteen) Schilter. She attended country elementary school and graduated from Athol High School. On October 16, 1940 Altha was united in marriage to Clayton Wilhelm and they established a farming operation in the Miranda area and had three children. While raising her children and helping with the farm, she was a member of the Happy Hustler's Club and a good neighbor and friend to all. Clayton passed away in 1961.

Altha was a member of Tuesday Club in Faulkton, VFW Auxiliary, and the United Church of Faulkton. She enjoyed her children, grandchildren and many relatives and friends. In earlier years, she loved to crochet.

Altha also enjoyed raising chickens, working in the garden, canning and was a great cook. Everyone always enjoyed homemade cookies when visiting. Her grandchildren will always remember the annual angel food cake for their birthdays. Altha was a kind and gentle soul, always enjoyed visiting with friends and relatives. She always had a smile and kind words to say about everyone.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

*Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

*And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil;*

*For Thine is the kingdom,
and the power,*

and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.
