

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there,
I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am a diamond
glint on snow*

*I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you wake in the morning
Hush I am the swift uplifting rush
I am quiet birds in circling flight
I am the fish swimming in the lake
By the soft starlight at night
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep*

Charles Bent, 80, of Faulkton, passed away Saturday, August 10, 2013 at the Faulkton Healthcare Center.

Charles Arthur Bent was born December 7, 1932 in Faulkton, SD to Arthur and Lena (Ickler) Bent. He attended country school in Faulk County, and he also attended Faulkton High School.

After schooling, Charles moved to Kansas for a period of time and worked with his cousin as a mechanic. He returned to Faulkton and joined the United States Army. During his service time he married Darlene Patterson on November 17, 1953. From their union they had five children: James, Jeff, Jerry, Jay and Julie. In 1955 Charles received his honorable discharge and went to work for various Faulkton farmers, he was a janitor at the courthouse, and he also ran his own painting business.

Charles enjoyed square dancing in his free time. He was fond of the outdoors, and spent much of his time fishing and hunting. He was also a member of the Oddfellows Lodge and a lifetime member of the American Legion.

Charles is survived by his children: James, Jeff, Jerry, Jay, and Julie; 10 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; seven step grandchildren; his siblings: Delores Ford, Donna Bent, Bonnie (Robert) Meyer, Dick (JoAnn) Bent, and Roger (Mary-Ann) Bent and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Lena Bent.
