Mothers Never Die, They Just Keep House Up in the Sky

*When we are children, we are happy and gay,
And our Mother is young and she laughs as we played.*

*Then as we grow up, she teaches us truth,
And lays life's foundation in the days of our youth.*

*And then it is time for us to leave home,
But her teachings go with us wherever we roam.*

*For all that she taught us and all that we did,
When we were so often just a "bad, little kid".*

*We often remember and then realize
That Mothers are Special and Wonderfully Wise....*

*And as we grow older, we look back with love,
Knowing that Mothers are "Gifts from Above".*

*As when she "goes home" to receive her award,
She will dwell in God's Kingdom and "Keep House for the Lord"*

*Where she'll "light up" the stars that shine through the night,
And keep all the moonbeams "sparkling and bright".*

*And then with the dawn she'll put darkness away,
As she "scours" the sun to new brilliance each day....*

*So dry tears of sorrow, for Mothers don't die-
They just move in with God and "Keep House in the Sky".*

*And there in God's Kingdom, Mothers watch from above,
