I Said a Prayer for You Today

I said a prayer for you today and know God must have heard.

I felt the answer in my heart although He spoke no word.

I didn't ask for wealth or fame, I knew you wouldn't mind,

I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind.

I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day,

To grant you health and blessings and friends to share the way.

I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small

But it was for His loving care I prayed the most of all.

Linda Lou (Everding) Hayes, 69, of Faulkton passed away Wednesday, December 24, 2014 at Faulkton Healthcare Center.

Linda Lou Everding was born January 3, 1945 in Adamcenter, NY to Carl and Mable (Hunter) Everding. She graduated from North Central High School in Rogers, ND in 1963.

On August 8, 1963, Linda married Randolph James Hayes in Sanborn, ND. They lived in Jamestown, ND where Randy worked for the Coca-Cola bottling company. Later they owned and operated a bar in Luverne, ND for 10 years. In 1983, they moved to Mandan, ND as Randy started working with Schwan's Frozen Foods. They relocated to Murdo, SD in 1988.

After Randy's passing in 1996, Linda lived in Valley City and Aberdeen before moving to Faulkton in 2005.

She enjoyed spending her time gardening, camping, crocheting and painting ceramics. While living at the Faulkton Senior Living, Linda enjoyed bingo and getting her hair and nails done.

Linda is survived by her son, Cory (Melissa) of Faulkton; two daughters: Laurie (Bill) Frazier of Bath and Annette (Jeff) Lefforge of Mansfield; five grandchildren: Dustin (Natasha) Hayes of Faulkton, Mitch Friedt of Aberdeen, and Hayden, Savanna and Collin Hayes of Faulkton; two great grandchildren: Peyton and Axel Hayes of Faulkton; two sisters: Marie (Laurel) Gunderson of Lynnwood, WA and Barb Olson of Valley City, ND; and one brother, Ray (Tita) Everding of Warner Robins, GA.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; and grandparents, Fred and Rose Hunter.
