

To Those I Love And
Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"*

Marjorie Bisbee, 87, of Cresbard, passed away Monday, December 29, 2014 peacefully at her home surrounded by her family.

Marge was born on October 9, 1927 in Faulkton, SD to Engval "Evie" and Lily (Rasmussen) Everson. The Eversons raised their two daughters Mildred "Midge" and Marjorie in Onaka, SD. In 1943, the family moved to Cresbard when Evie was transferred through Standard Oil.

Marge attended and graduated from Cresbard High School in 1945 just as WWII was coming to an end. She then continued her education at the Spearfish Norman School where she received her teaching certificate. She went on to teach at a local country school and later at the Seneca School.

Marge married Dale Bisbee after he returned from his service overseas. The couple was married in Marge's parents' home during a blizzard on November 23, 1947 Helen Bisbee, Marge's best friend, and Les Shew trudged through the snow to attend.

The Bisbees first made their home on the farm in the Devoe area. In 1952 Dale bought and began managing the Standard Oil business in Cresbard, and they moved into Marge's parents' home on Main Street.

As the family grew to eight children, Marge stayed busy as ever in her community. She was actively involved in many organizations such as the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Circle, the Home Extension Club, and the Cresbard/Devoe Museum Committee. She and Dale were also both active in Boy Scouts and 4H. She was most proud of her 68 year membership in the American Legion Auxiliary. Marge also kept busy teaching Sunday school and Bible school for many years. She loved her Canasta playing group and the Red Hats, and she adored the friends she met every morning for coffee. The "Coffee Sippers" were all very special to her.

Baking and cooking were a way of life to Marge, and she made absolutely perfect pie crusts. Her shelves were always filled with jars of prepared produce from the garden. Marge's family remembers her very kind and generous heart the most. Through the years the family shared many exciting moments together. Dale converted a school bus to an RV, and the family took it on many vacations and camping trips.

Marge's life will be cherished by her children: David (Cindy) of Pierre, Russell (Dianne) of Cresbard, Daniel of Cresbard, Bruce (Bernie) of Aberdeen, Colleen (John) Klein of Aberdeen, Dixie of Cresbard, Diana of Webster, and Barry (Barb) of Rapid City; her grandchildren: Ramona, DJ, Tina, Jason, Tony, Michelle, Jon, Celisity, Heather, Darcie, Bobbi, Holli, and Beau; 31 great-grandchildren; and her sister, Midge Helsing of Hot Springs, AR.

She is preceded in death by her parents, and her beloved husband, Dale Bisbee.
