

Magic of Prayer

When the trials of this life make you weary
And your troubles seem too much to bear,
There's a wonderful solace and comfort
In the silent communion of prayer.
When you've searched for the sun without ceasing
And the showers continue to fall,
There's a heavenly lift in the wonderful gift
That God has extended to all.
From the magic of prayer there comes power
That will minimize all of your care,
And you'll gather new hope
When you are able to cope
With the troubles that once brought despair.
So lift up your heart to the heavens,
There's a loving and kind Father there
Who offers release and comfort and peace
In the silent communion of prayer.

Ginger Creams

"I got this recipe from a little southern couple from Memphis, Tennessee that I worked for as a maid in Freeport, Illinois before I was married - Harry and Lessye Wheat. He was a lawyer; they had 2 children, Jim and Ann. They were so good to me!"

- 1 Cup Melted Crisco
- 1 Cup Sugar
- 1 Cup Molasses (I use Grandma's brand; it's milder)
- 3 Eggs
- 1 Teaspoon Ginger
- ½ Teaspoon Cloves
- 1 Teaspoon Cinnamon
- 1 Cup Coffee (just warm or cold)
- 4 Cups Flour
- 2 Teaspoons Soda (dissolved in 2 teaspoons of vinegar)

Add coffee and flour alternately. Drop from a teaspoon and bake until done—about 10-15 minutes. Frost with 2 beaten egg whites, 4 tablespoons softened butter and enough powdered sugar to make a spreading consistency.

Mothers

Our homes are not just houses, but they are several things,
Within its walls we should have love, where contentment clings.
From the generous hands of God and time
We receive little lives so spotless and new,
Bringing us labors of love and many tasks sublime,
We guide their steps aright, the results for all to view.

Motherhood like many things in life, is above price
One of the things money cannot buy, but oh so nice.
When starting this task of molding a life,
We pray to our Heavenly Father on high
"Help us each day, in joy or in strife
May thy presence be always nigh."
The faith that we have, the mistakes we have made
Make all of our work and worry worthwhile.
With love and respect, we are all repaid,
We are encouraged, when our eyes meet their smile.

In Loving Memory

Nina Myrene Reed Herman was born November 14, 1916 in Faulk County to Hurl and Effie (Starr) Reed, the ninth of eleven children. She grew up in the Faulkton area where she attended the Reed Country School and graduated from Faulkton High School in 1936. After graduation Nina went to Illinois where she worked until her marriage.

On March 17, 1937, Nina met the love her of life, Ralph Herman, at a St. Patrick's Day Dance in Miranda, SD. They were married on March 14, 1938, in Dubuque, IA. Following their marriage, they worked on a ranch in the Imperial Valley of Southern California. They returned to Faulkton on September 17, 1938 where they farmed and raised their family.

Nina was a member of the United Methodist Church, serving as their financial secretary for 22 years. She was also the treasurer of the Autumn Leaves Senior Center, a Cub Scout leader, Sunday school teacher, member of the Saratoga Susie's Extension Club, member of the study club and first chairman of the Miriam Circle of the Methodist church. Nina was a 25+ year member of the Rebekah Lodge, Noble Grand of the Rebekahs in 1966 and 1978, and a lifetime member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Nina taught herself to crochet, knit, tat and sew. She loved to embroider dishtowels and crochet doilies; many people have been the recipients of these. All of her grandchildren covet a complete set of seven. Nina always had a happy, positive attitude and could be heard singing as she went about her work. To the end, she always said she dearly loved being a mother, and she had a "good life". The family is thankful for the "good life" she gave all of them.

Nina is survived by her daughter, Cherry (Eugene) Frasier of Faulkton, their children, Tannia (Kevin) Miller, Fargo, ND; Darla (Dave) Eichstadt, Huron, SD; Dale (Karen) Frasier, Spearfish, SD; Jayme (Amie) Frasier, Faulkton; daughter, Marlys' daughter, Trisha Meek and her son, John Meek and daughter, Marina Kader, Faulkton; son, Gale (Holly) Herman, of Monticello, MN and their daughters, Jessica (Adam) Schmidt, Winthrop, MN; Colleen (Grant) Johnson, St. Michael, MN; Margaret (Ryan) Denzer, Denver, CO; son, Glen Herman of Olathe, KS, and his daughters, Alicia (Robert) Terry, Overland Park, KS, Tara (Andrew) Springer, Overland Park, KS; grandson, Jerod Herman, Olathe, KS; many more great grandchildren; and one sister, Eileen Sesak of Salinas, CA.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Ralph; two infant children; daughter, Marlys (Spade) Cooley; son, Gene Herman; sisters: Florence Butler, Eva Kleffman, Keitha Bullock, Janet Elston, and Lois Uphoff; and five brothers: Marvin, Glenn, Leo, Delbert, Herschel and Wilmer.
