THE FAMILY CHAIN

*If Love could have saved you –
You would not have died.
If tears could bring you back
You'd be by our side.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone;
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

*God takes us one by one
And breaks the family chain.
But somewhere in a better land
Our chain will link again.*

Christopher Allen Fix was born, January 24, 1983 at Dakota Midland Hospital in Aberdeen, SD to Allen and Diane (Webb) Fix. He graduated from Faulkton High School in 2001. Chris owned and operated Christopher Fix Trucking, hauling cattle at the time of his death.

Chris enjoyed working on his truck and shining it up! He liked playing cards with his buddies and listening to country music. Chris had a deep love for his '03 Kenworth, his '06 Peterbilt, "Ellie", and his Chevy Pickup. He enjoyed driving his brothers '69 Chevy around and had plans of restoring it in the future, along with his dad's Freightliner. He poured his whole heart and soul into his trucking business.

In Chris' younger years he enjoyed spending time with his cousins: fishing, 4-wheeling, and helping out on his grandparent's farm. He was known for his heart of gold and contagious smile. He made many friends while "the flames" traveled up and down the highway. He was eager to lend a helping hand in every way. Chris gave everything his all; he respected his work, family and friends. Chris would spend a lot of time talking to his mom on the phone when he was out on the road and she enjoyed riding along every chance she could. Chris' future plans were to marry Brooke Volk and gain a special step-daughter, Miranda.

Chris is survived by his mother, Diane of Faulkton; fiancée, Brooke Volk and daughter, Miranda of Faulkton; maternal grandparents: Dude and Frances Webb of Faulkton; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father, Allen in 2007; his brother, Kevin in 2003; and his paternal grandparents, Frank and Rita Fix.

survive the storm
but how to dance in the rain.”
