

*God's finger touched her,
and she slipped away
From earth's dark shadows
to a brighter day;*

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb;

He gently closed her weary eyes, and

Whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

To a beautiful garden this friend has gone.

To a land of perfect rest;

Though she is gone, she still lives on

In the garden of memory.

Loreve Deiter, 82, of Faulkton, passed away Thursday, February 11, 2016 at Avera St. Luke's Hospital, Aberdeen.

Lila Loreve Hunt Deiter was born May 26, 1933 to Robert and Helen (Wakefield) Law in Faulk County, South Dakota. She lived in the Norbeck/Cresbard area all her life where she attended Stevenson Country School and Cresbard High School

On September 14, 1952 Loreve was united in marriage to Elden Hunt. They made their home near Cresbard. Loreve helped on the farm and raised their son, Lon. Later on they opened the local laundromat. After Elden's passing in 1980, she then moved into Faulkton, working as a nurses' aid at the Faulkton Healthcare Center and Faulk County Hospital.

In 2000 Loreve married Delmar Deiter. The couple wintered several years in Mexico to get away from the South Dakota weather. She was a member of the United Methodist Church of Faulkton and the Lakeside Country Club. It is well known that she had a great sense of humor and loved to visit! A true 'people person'.

Grateful for having shared her life is her husband, Delmar; sister, Judy (Arnie) Zueger; brother, Jack Law; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her son, Lon, in 1969; her parents; husband, Eldon Hunt; and brother, Lucky Law.

In Loving Memory
