

Footprints

One night a man had a dream.
He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes of his life.
For each scene, he noticed
two sets of footprints in the sand;
one belonged to him,
and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD
about it "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way, but I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My son, My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change
Change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Dolris McKown, 72, of Faulkton, passed away Thursday, April 7, 2016 at Specialty Select Hospital, Sioux Falls.

Dolris Jean Davis was born November 7, 1943 in Roberts County, SD to William and Viola (Larsen) Davis.

She attended Redfield School through the 8th grade, and at the age of 41, Dolris went on to receive her G.E.D. and also a degree in dietary management.

In 1961, Dolris married Perle O'Daniel. To this union three children were born.

Some of the places Dolris lived throughout her life included a farm near Ashton, and from there she moved to a ranch near Oelrichs, SD in 1978; where she was a stay at home mom until beginning to travel to work in Hot Springs at the State Veteran's Home. Later on she resided in Chadron, NE, working at Crestview Nursing Home. In 2012, Dolris moved to Faulkton where she happily took on the role of full time Grandma.

Some of the things Dolris will be most remembered for were her exceptional cooking skills, always having a smile on her face, and her true devotion and dedication to her family. Some of her other hobbies included sewing, crocheting, arts and crafts, playing cards, doing crossword puzzles and games, and her love of dancing.

Dolris is survived by her three children: Shan O'Daniel of Lead, Wade O'Daniel of Oglala, and Jodi (Joe) Senn of Seneca; 13 grandchildren: Tyler, Tanner, Klay, Kole, Katy, Kaylee, and Kaycee O'Daniel and Shauna, Kayla, Ashly, Jaymi, Shaye and Weston Senn; siblings: Janice (Ronnie) Metzger of Kelso, WA, Sharon (Tommy) Brand of Long View, WA, Lonelle (Ted) Davis of Usk, WA, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Dolris is preceded in death by her parents and sister, Beverly Davis.
