Don't Be Sad

*Don't be sad and lonely,
Because I've gone away.
Think about me only,
When it's a brighter day.
Don't waste your time crying,
Since I'm no longer here.
You have spent enough time,
Showing me that you care.
Wipe away your sadness,
For tears won't bring relief.
Cherish the memories,
Forget about your grief.
If I could be with you,
That is where I would be,
But I have no power,
To change life's destiny.
So try to be happy,
Don't mourn your life away,
For we'll be together,
At the end of life's day.*

Wallace Arnold, 53, of Onaka, passed away Thursday, May 12, 2016 at the Faulkton Area Medical Center of natural causes. Wally had spent the day fixing fence, and it had been an enjoyable day for him. He felt blessed to have lived on the family farm his entire life.

Wallace Donald Arnold was born August 13, 1962, in Faulkton, SD to Donald and Joyce (Glanzman) Arnold. He attended grade school in Onaka and graduated from Cresbard High School in 1980. Wally remained a good and loyal friend to those who knew him.

Wally was baptized and confirmed at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Wecota. After high school graduation, Wally remained at home helping his dad on the farm. When his parents retired in 1985 and moved to Faulkton, Wally continued to operate the family farm. He married Jennifer Meier of Roscoe on March 11, 1989. Wally loved his friends and family. His needs were simple. He found fun in $1 boxes of goodies at auctions, conversation and cooking. He loved music, and a good rock concert was a treat. He liked to read and observe nature, both human and wild.

Wally is survived by his mother, Joyce Arnold of Faulkton; his siblings: Fran (Allen) Aden of Mesa, Arizona, and Gettysburg, Janene (John) Papendick of Aberdeen, and Danella (Brad) Paul of Faulkton. He was proud of his nieces and nephews and their spouses and children: Alisa, Hilary, Kate, Joe, Ben and Jamie.

He was preceded in death by his father, Donald (May 7, 1988) and his maternal grandparents, C.W. and Ella Glanzman, and paternal grandparents, Frank and Bertha Arnold.
