*Life goes on
Years go by
But precious memories
Will never die.*

Your lives to share
But in your heart
She's always there.*

The things she did and said
She never really left you
She just went on ahead.*

On March 20, 1928, Jean Elizabeth was born to Gar and Jenny (Richards) Griffith on the family farm in Faulk County. She attended rural country school and then graduated from Cresbard High School in 1946. She went on to South Dakota State University; graduating with a Bachelor in Science in Home Economics in 1957. She taught for a short time in Marion and Bristol, South Dakota.

Jean married Donald Bisbee on October 24, 1959 at the First Presbyterian Church in Aberdeen. To this union, two children were born: Carolyn and Richard. After marriage, being a farmwife, homemaker, mother, and grandmother were her priorities. She took great pride in helping her family however she could.

Grateful for having shared in her life are her children: Carolyn (Randal) Dejmal and Richard (Kellie) Bisbee; grandchildren: Elliott (Kate) Dejmal, Rebekah Dejmal, and Tyler Bisbee; great grandson, Ryker Dejmal; sister, Adah Ruth Jenkins; sisters-in-law, Shirley Holt and Marilyn Bisbee; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and husband, Donald.

The family requests memorials be directed to the United Methodist Church in Cresbard.
