St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery ~ Orient, South Dakota

*God's finger touched him, and he slipped away
From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day;*

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb;

He gently closed his weary eyes, and

Whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

To a beautiful garden this friend has gone.

To a land of perfect rest;

Though he is gone, he still lives on

In the garden of memory.

Harold William Schaefers, 85, of Orient, passed away Thursday, January 26, 2017 at Eventide Nursing Home, Fargo, ND.

Harold William Schaefers was born January 12, 1932 at Polo, South Dakota to William and Eleanor Schaefers. The family lived in Idaho where Harry spent his younger years. They later moved to Aberdeen and Harry graduated from Aberdeen Central High School in 1950. Following graduation, Harry honorably served in the United States Army.

Harry married Janie Conway, of Orient, on May 3, 1955. They lived in Paynesville, MN, Crystal, MN and then moved back to Orient in 1963 to farm with his father-in-law. He continued to farm near Orient with his sons until his retirement in 2002.

Harry is survived by his children: Bab (Kirk) Carr of Fargo, ND, Curt Schaefers of Orient, and Dirk (Susan) Schaefers of Orient; grandchildren: Andy (Kristen) Carr of Fargo, ND, Jeremy Carr of Brookings, Kassie (Matt) Kutz of Highmore, Collin Schaefers of Orient, and Kaitee Schaefers of Aberdeen; great grandchildren: Molly and Connor Carr of Fargo, ND, and Layla, Easton, and Archer Kutz of Highmore; a sister, Sister Maria Elena Schaefers of Cottonwood, ID; and a brother, Ronald (Mary Jo) Schaefers of Spokane, WA.

He was preceded in death by his wife, parents, and a sister Marion Jones.
