

Dale D. Aesoph, 44, of Brookings and formerly of the Seneca/Faulkton area, went to be with the Lord our God on Tuesday, March 7, 2017, at 10:51a.m., at the University of Minnesota Medical Center, Minneapolis, MN, surrounded by his family.

Dale Duane Aesoph was born October 20, 1972 in Gettysburg to Duane and Glenda (Sangster) Aesoph. Dale was born with Cystic Fibrosis and lived a life full of struggles; however, he always fought hard. Everyone called him a warrior, as Dale took things in stride, doing things his way. This time he fought the hardest, but the Lord thought he had fought enough.

Dale attended school in Faulkton, graduating in 1991. Following high school, Dale moved to Aberdeen working for Banner Engineering before moving to Brookings where he went to work for Daktronics. On December 17, 2007 Dale went to work for 3M where he remained until his health forced him to retire. Dale received a new set of lungs on March 12, 2016. He was so happy and loved being able to go places with his friends. He always enjoyed following his nephew's wrestling and taking in any Washington Redskins football games.

Dale's life will be cherished by his mother: Glenda Sangster (Cecil Holdren), Faulkton; father: Duane Aesoph (Regina Roehrich), Seneca; brother, Craig Aesoph, Aberdeen; nephews: Jacob, Devin, Brody, and Kylla Aesoph, Aberdeen; uncles: Joe Aesoph, Dean (Alice) Sangster, Bill Aesoph (Tammy Downing); aunts: Sharon Rasler, Ramona Anderson, Kathy Hurst, and Corrine Mangiaruca; and numerous cousins. Dale was loved by all who knew him, he will be truly missed.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents: Ed and Sylvia Aesoph and Glen and June Sangster; and aunts: Diane Aesoph and Phyllis Traver.

In Loving Memory Of
Dale Duane Aesoph
October 20, 1972 - March 7, 2017

There are people that you meet in this life that you bond with immediately. Dale Aesoph was one of those people for me.

From his first days at 3M, his smile and exuberance for life drew me to him, and we soon became good friends.

We talked about everything and although his life was one of lifelong illness, you would never have known it. He laughed heartily and easily, held few if any grudges, never displayed a bit of envy or jealousy and was one of the funniest guys you would ever meet.

I remember one conversation in particular while we were at work where he commented how lucky he was that he had lived longer than anyone thought he would and how at that point he was grateful for each day he had.

I am so thankful too that you lived long enough for me to have known you. You made my life richer and this world a better place. My heart aches tonight at the thought that I will never again see your smile or hear your laughter.

But you my friend, finally have peace and I would not wish you another day of pain and illness for my sake.

Until I see you on the other side, -Holly
