

Aneta Thompson, 94, of Faulkton and formerly of Gering, NE, passed away Tuesday, March 14, 2017 at the Faulkton Area Medical Center.

She was born to Clair and Hazel (Farrell) Shafer on March 20, 1922 in Wallace, Nebraska. After graduating from high school in Elsie, Nebraska, Aneta attended nursing school in Scottsbluff, Nebraska and Denver, Colorado. After graduating from nursing training, she met and married O. Wayne Thompson on Oct. 30, 1943. They lived and worked in Gering for 55 years before moving to Faulkton.

Throughout her life, Aneta worked as a private practice nurse for Dr. Harvey in Gering, NE. She also was a school nurse, a private care nurse, and a church camp nurse.

Aneta was very active in her church in many capacities. She was a wonderful cook and always shared her baked goods with church friends and amongst her many other friends and family.

She is survived by a son, Tim (Carol) Thompson of Ft. Collins, CO; a daughter, Susan (Ron) Bowar of Faulkton, SD; and grandchildren, Wendy Thompson, Adam (Jennifer) Thompson, Erin Bowar, Shannon (Brandon) Schuler, and Breann Bowar.

She was preceded in death by her husband, O. Wayne Thompson.
