Don't Be Sad

*Don't be sad and lonely,
Because I've gone away.
Think about me only,
When it's a brighter day.*

*Don't waste your time crying,
Since I'm no longer here.
You have spent enough time,
Showing me that you care.*

*Wipe away your sadness,
For tears won't bring relief.
Cherish the memories,
Forget about your grief.*

*If I could be with you,
That is where I would be,
But I have no power,
To change life's destiny.*

*So try to be happy,
Don't mourn your life away,
For we'll be together,
At the end of life's day.*

Clara K. Smith, 105, of Faulkton, passed away Thursday, February 1, 2018 at the Faulkton Senior Living.

Clara K. Kuhl was born November 19, 1912 on a farm seven miles southwest of Faulkton, SD to Otto and Clara (Daniels) Kuhl. She attended Kuhl rural school.

On October 10, 1934 Clara married Harry Smith at Faulkton and together they lived on a farm south of Burkmere, SD. In 1961 they moved into Faulkton where she worked at the Coast to Coast store for five years. She later worked as a nurse's aide at the Faulkton Hospital for 11 years.

Clara was a member of the United Church of Faulkton and the VFW Auxiliary Post #3179. She spent a lot of her free time fishing, it was one of her favorite hobbies. She also enjoyed time playing cards and working in her flower beds.

Clara's life will be cherished by her sons: Lloyd (Phyllis) Smith of Hartford and Duane (Judith) Smith of Hermosa; daughter, Joann (Dean) Robideau of Mitchell; 12 grandchildren; 28 great grandchildren; and 13 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Harry, in 1992; four sisters: Maude Thorn, Harriet Myers, Marion Bowar, and Myrtle Bauhs; two brothers: Fred and Harold Kuhl; and one great grandson, Cody Smith.
