

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away
Although we loved her dearly,
We would not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God has laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call; I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with time of sorrow, for I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee, God wanted me now so HE SET ME FREE.

Dolores Ruhlman Selting, 87, of Faulkton, went home to Heaven on Saturday, July 7, 2018 at Aberdeen ManorCare surrounded by her family.

Dolores June Schilder was born August 1, 1930 in Faulk County, SD to Reynolds "Pete" and Rosa (Rutherford) Schilder. She attended Faulkton High School, graduating in 1947. Dolores went to work for the Employment Security Department until her marriage to David Ruhlman on July 16, 1948.

They made their home in Miranda until building Dave's Motel at Faulkton in 1958. They ran the motel together until David's passing on October 19, 1974. Dolores continued to run the motel until 1980, at which time she sold it and went to work as an auction clerk for many years.

In November of 1980, Dolores married Lawrence Selting. She was a longtime member of the United Church of Faulkton. She loved working on puzzles, doing crosswords, playing darts, baking, was an avid Twins fan and loved being a mother and grandmother.

Dolores' life will be cherished by her children: Gloria (Dan) Hobbs of Mission Viejo, CA, Alan (Judy) Ruhlman of Aberdeen, Doyle (Marilyn) Ruhlman of Brookings, and Dennis Ruhlman of Brookings; five grandchildren: Myranda Weaver, David (Tiffany) Ruhlman, Lacy (Ryan) Heyer, Dawn Ruhlman and Drew (Hannah) Ruhlman; seven great grandchildren; numerous step children; sister, Vera Uminger; sisters-in-law: Ruth Yada and Beth Bowar; and brother-in-law, Jim Stanforth.

She was preceded in death by both husbands: David Ruhlman and Lawrence Selting; longtime friend, Jim Martinmaas; and sister, Phyllis Stanforth.

Memorials may be directed to the United Church of Faulkton and the Special Olympics.

The family would like to thank Country Classics of Redfield for providing the casket spray and floral arrangements for the service.
