

God hath not promised
skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
all our lives through;
God hath not promised
sun without rain,
joy without sorrow,
peace without pain.

But God hath promised
strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
light for the way,
Grace for the trails,
help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
undying love...

Donald Brewer, 83, of Faulkton, passed away Thursday, August 9, 2018 at the Faulkton Senior Living.

Donald was born in Faulkton to Joseph Andrew Brewer and Theresa Janet (Sundermeyer) Brewer on November 21, 1934. He attended country school and later graduated from Faulkton High School in 1953. Following school, Donald began his life-long career in the farming industry.

Some of Donald's interests, that he held dear, were trap shooting, cowboy shooting, hunting, reading, watching Westerns, bowling, and making deer jerky.

Donald was also a life-long member of the NRA, St. Thomas Catholic Church, Faulk County Gun Club, and the Single Action Shooting Society. He served on the NRCS Board and as a county commission for 16 years.

Grateful for sharing in Donald's life are his brothers: Leo Brewer and Timon "Mike" Brewer; and numerous nieces and nephews; great nieces and nephews; and great-great nieces and nephews.

Donald was preceded in death by his parents; brothers: Joseph, William Emil, Francis, and Archabold "Archie" Brewer; sisters-in-law: Madalin Brewer, Gladys Brewer, and Ferna Brewer; and nephews: Michael Brewer and James Brewer.
