

Terry R. Huss was born on October 21, 1960 to Kenneth and Lorraine (Wieseler) Huss in Aberdeen, South Dakota. Terry graduated from Faulkton High School and attended one year at Lake Area Technical Institute in Watertown, South Dakota for Agriculture. On May 6th, 1989, he was united in holy matrimony to Beverly Gabriel in Faulkton, South Dakota. Terry and Bev made their home on the Huss family farm near Faulkton where they raised their daughters, Kelsey and Amanda. One of his greatest treasures were his grandchildren. He loved his family very much and would move mountains for them.

Terry has spent his life doing what he loved on the family farm. Over the years he has taken pride in raising cattle and growing a variety of crops. His farm was his life legacy, where his presence will be felt for generations to come. His influence will forever remain in the lives of all who knew him.

When he wasn't on the farm, he surrounded himself with family and friends and enjoyed traveling. His favorite location to camp was Lake Kampeska, near Watertown, South Dakota. Terry was able to accomplish many of his last wishes; one of them was his dream home on Lake Kampeska. The home is meant to be a place where family and friends are to gather and fill it with love and laughter.

Terry had one of the biggest hearts in the world. He was constantly giving to others in need. He was extremely grateful for all the blessings in his life and was always looking for ways to pay it forward. He also enjoyed donating his time to numerous committees, organizations, and the church.

Terry was a member of St. Thomas Catholic Church in Faulkton and The Knights of Columbus. He was on the Arcade Township board for many years. One of Terry's most beloved hobbies included snowmobiling, which lead him to form the local snowmobile club.

His beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of his loving wife, Beverly; his children Kelsey (Joy) Huss and Amanda (Christian) Hojer; his grandchildren, Abbi, Eryka, Emili, Max, Brintley, Franklin, Bryson, Rhett, a new grandchild due in April; his mother, Lorraine Huss; sisters, Lynette (Chip) Foerster, Jean (Dr. Daniel) Petereit; numerous nieces and nephews; a host of devoted cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth; brother, Larry; and brother-in-law, John VerHelst.

In My Way Memory
By Elvis Presley

And now, the end is near
And so I face the final curtain
My friend, I'll say it clear
I'll state my case, of which I'm certain
I've lived a life that's full
I've traveled each and every highway
Oh, and more, much more than this
I did it my way

Regrets, I've had a few
But then again, too few to mention
I did what I had to do
And saw it through without exemption
I planned each charted course
Each careful step along the byway
But more, much more than this
I did it my way

Yes, there were times, I'm sure you knew
When I bit off more than I could chew
But through it all, when there was doubt
I ate it up and spit it out
I faced it all and I stood tall
And did it my way

I've loved, I've laughed and cried
Had my fill, my share of losing
And now, as tears subside
I find all so amusing

To think I did all that
And may I say, not in a shy way
"Oh no, oh no not me
I did it my way"

For what is a man, what has he got?
If not himself, then he has naught
To say the things he truly feels
And not the words of one who kneels
The record shows I took the blows
And did it my way
