

2 Corinthians 5:1-10, 20-21

<sup>5</sup> For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. <sup>2</sup> Meanwhile we groan, longing to be clothed instead with our heavenly dwelling, <sup>3</sup> because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. <sup>7</sup> We live by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup> We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. <sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

<sup>20</sup> We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup> God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Adolphiene D. Mickley, 104, of Faulkton, passed away Saturday, February 9, 2019 at Faulkton Senior Living.

Adolphiene Davidiene Mickley was born April 15, 1914 at home near Canistota, SD to Max F. and Eka (Dreier) Mickley. Adee was named for two older brothers who had died before she was born. She and her father, Max, came out ahead of the family to start a farm or two near Onaka, SD. The family soon followed. The early years were good until they weren't.

Adee came to know Christ through attending an evangelistic meeting in Faulkton as a young woman. Those few days began a lifelong adventure of seeking to know and follow Jesus, who changed her life. Adee would often say, "The joy of the Lord is my strength." (Nehemiah 8:10). Adolphiene never married, remaining single her entire life.

After high school, Adolphiene worked at the Onaka bank before starting at the ASC office in Faulkton where she worked for 13 years. She then went to work for Faulkton Motor Company as a secretary and parts man, retiring after 33 years of service.

Adolphiene helped Faulkton youth plant Victory gardens, she led 4-H, was a horse woman and a farrier. She was an active member, Sunday School teacher, and choir member of the United Church of Faulkton. With the encouragement of her community, she developed a trailer court as a solution to a housing shortage in Faulkton. Adee chose to set down her roots in Faulkton. She had many opportunities to move closer to family, but Faulkton was her home, and she was proud of it. Her weekly phone calls kept the Mickley family connected, and if she was asked to pray about something, she could be counted on to do it.

Those remaining to cherish her life are her many nieces and nephews; great nieces and nephews; great-great nieces and nephews; and her friends.

Adolphiene was preceded in death by her parents; brothers: Adolph, John, David, and Otto; and sisters: Ina Bemis and Margaret Webster.
