Don't Be Sad

Don't be sad and lonely,
Because I've gone away.
Think about me only,
When it's a brighter day.
Don't waste your time crying,
Since I'm no longer here.
You have spent enough time,
Showing me that you care.
Wipe away your sadness,
For tears won't bring relief.
Cherish the memories,
Forget about your grief.
If I could be with you,
That is where I would be,
But I have no power,
To change life's destiny.
So try to be happy,
Don't mourn your life away,
For we'll be together,
At the end of life's day.

Delores Wieseler, 88, of Miller and formerly of Polo, passed away Monday, September 9, 2019 at her home.

Delores Jean Jenner was born on February 4, 1931 to Robert and Freda (Gerjets) Jenner and grew up on a farm by St. Lawrence.

She attended Beulah School, Gilbert Township, through the eighth grade and graduated from Miller High School in 1949. While she was growing up, Delores was active in FHA, Girls Glee Club, and 4-H for which she earned many ribbons.

After graduating she worked as a receptionist at St. John's Hospital in Huron.

Delores married George Wieseler at the Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Denver, Colorado, on August 4, 1952.

In the first years of their marriage, George and Delores lived in Merced, California, where George was stationed while he served in the Air Force. Their first son was born in Merced.

They returned to South Dakota in 1954, and they purchased their farm in 1956. They had five more children.

Delores was active in Catholic Daughters and Christian Mothers. She enjoyed playing cards, fishing, and camping with their Good Sam group.

Delores is survived by her children: Wayne, Cathedral City, CA, Bruce (Brenda), Kansas City, MO, Dan (Jacquelyn), Kansas City, MO, Jane, Sioux Falls, SD, Rod (Cindy), Miller, SD, Pam Schwebach (Rock), Renner, SD; 16 grandchildren; and 30 great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, George; parents, Robert and Freda; brother, Walter; and sister, Laverne.
