

In Loving Memory of

Dorothy T. Huss

November 30, 1922
Montgomery, Alabama

April 6, 2020
Faulkton, South Dakota

Love is always patient and kind,
it is never jealous.

Love is never boastful or conceited,
it is never rude or selfish.

Love does not take offence,
and it is never resentful.

Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins, but delights in the truth.

Love is always ready to excuse, to trust,
to hope and to endure whatever comes.

Love does not come to an end.

MASS OF CHRISTIAN BURIAL:

10:30 a.m., Thursday, April 16, 2020
St. Thomas the Apostle Church
Faulkton, South Dakota

CELEBRANT:

Fr. Christopher Hughes

CASKET BEARERS: "Children"

Jim Huss, Margie Lindbloom, David Huss,
Ted Huss, and Ann Mollman

HONORARY CASKET BEARERS:

Dorothy's Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren,
Nieces and Nephews

VOCALIST:

Jaci Mollman

HYMNS:

"On Eagle's Wings" "Here I Am, Lord"
"Hail Mary: Gentle Woman" "You Are Mine"
"Ave Maria" "In Paradisum"
"Jesus Christ is Risen Today"

INTERMENT:

St. Thomas Catholic Cemetery
Faulkton, South Dakota

Faulkton, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

Dorothy T. (Peek) Huss, daughter of James and Winnie "Alma" (Hubbard) Peek, was born in Montgomery, Alabama on November 30, 1922. She attended school in Montgomery, AL graduating from Sidney Lanier High School. Following high school, she began work as a dental assistant/hygienist at the Army Air Force Base at Maxwell AFB and Gunter Field, Montgomery, AL. That is where she met the love of her life, Cyril J. Huss (CJ), and as they liked to say, 'while cleaning his teeth'.

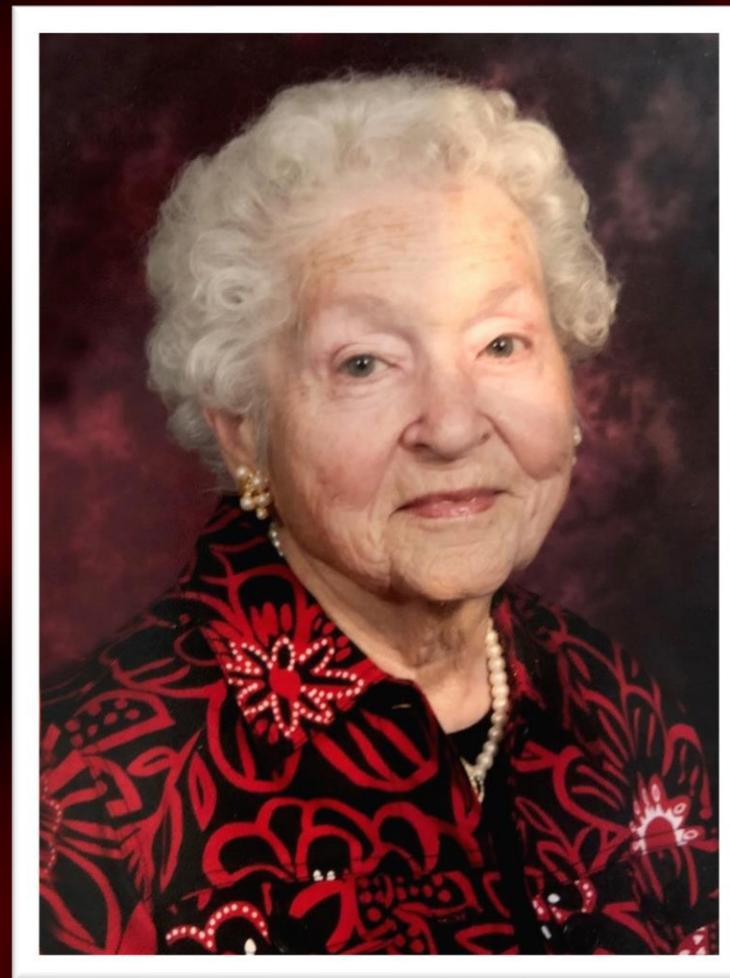

On February 17, 1944 they were married at Gunter Field Post Chapel where CJ was a flight instructor. They had a military reception at the Officer's Club. While Cyril was overseas in China Burma India (CBI) Theatre of Operations with 74th Fighter Squadron 23rd Fighter Group (the Flying Tiger's), she continued to make their home in Montgomery. In 1946, upon his return and honorable discharge, they purchased land and moved to the farm near Faulkton, SD. In 1950 CJ and Dorothy, along with his brother Leo and wife Connie, built and operated the Lyric Theater. CJ sold his share to Leo and Connie and eventually repurchased the Lyric Theater in 1967. Dorothy continued to run and operate the theater after CJ passed away, learning to negotiate with vendors, booking agents, and more. Her son, David, eventually took over those responsibilities and kept CJ and Dorothy's desire to keep the theater open for the community. Dorothy became known as the 'popcorn lady' by many people.

In 1952 CJ and Dorothy purchased the home she currently owns and moved to town to raise their growing family. Over the years, Dorothy worked for Dr. Berkholtz as a dental assistant, she and CJ owned and ran several businesses, including the Dairi-O, and the 212 Café. After CJ passed away, Dorothy purchased and rented properties to several businesses, including Shelbie's Flowers and Gifts. At age 90, she and her business partner and son, David, bought The Steakout, now named Dot T in honor of Dorothy "Dot T" Huss. It was also the name of Cyril's first airplane that was shot down over China.

Dorothy was a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, she served as president of the Altar Society, and Grand Regent of Catholic Daughters. She was also a member of the Faulkton American Legion Auxiliary, Faulkton VFW Auxiliary, Lakeside Country Club, Faulkton Bridge Club, TOPS, and several other Bridge Clubs. Dorothy loved to knit, make quilts (which she did for each one of her children), cook, play golf and cards. Dorothy loved to make holidays and birthdays for her children just a little extra special, including hosting the annual Huss Family and Friends Christmas Party for many years. Family was important to Dorothy. She always went above and beyond for her family as well as her extended families. She made many dear, life-long friends throughout her life in Faulkton.

Dorothy's life will be cherished by her children: Jim (Maria) Huss of Kissimmee, FL, Margie (Bob) Lindbloom of Green Bay, WI, David Huss of Faulkton, Ted Huss of Gillette, WY, Ann (Doug) Mollman of Spearfish, SD; and daughter-in-law: Patti Huss of Faulkton. She will be greatly missed by her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews, brother: William "Fred" (Betty Jo) Peek of Montgomery, AL; and sister-in-law: Shirley Peek of Austin, TX.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Cyril J. Huss; sons, Gerald and Donald Huss; her parents; one brother; and a stepsister.

Dorothy T. Huss
1922 - 2020