DON'T BE SAD

Don't be sad and lonely,
Because I've gone away.

Think about me only,
When it's a brighter day.

Don't waste your time crying,
Since I'm no longer here.
You have spent enough time,
Showing me that you care.
Wipe away your sadness,
For tears won't bring relief.

Cherish the memories,
Forget about your grief.

If I could be with you,
That is where I would be,

But I have no power,
To change life's destiny.

So try to be happy,
Don't mourn your life away,
For we'll be together,
At the end of life's day.

Glenda Sangster, 70, of Faulkton, passed away Friday, November 13, 2020 at Avera St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

Glenda was born September 28, 1950 in Faulkton, SD to Glen and June (Halter) Sangster. She attended Faulkton School and went on to Stewart's School of Hairstyling in Aberdeen.

She returned to Faulkton, marrying Duane Aesoph. To this union two sons were born, Dale and Craig. Glenda worked on the farm where she helped Duane, and she spent a lifetime of caring for Dale. She later worked for Phyllis Traver as a waitress at the 212 Café.

Glenda will be remembered for her love of cooking and baking. She also enjoyed a good cup of coffee with friends.

In 1989 she reunited with Cecil Holdren. They spent the next 31 years cherishing their lives together.

Glenda's life will be cherished by her son, Craig Aesoph, Aberdeen; grandchildren: Jacob, Devin, Brody, and Kylla Aesoph; special friend: Cecil Holdren, Faulkton; brother, Dean (Alice) Sangster, Faulkton; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; son, Dale Aesoph; brother, Ronnie; and sisters: Phyllis Traver and Karen (infant).
