

When you lived your life for others
and you loved without condition
When you made so many laugh and your smile won't be forgotten
When you left behind an empty place that no one else can fill
When the friendships that you shared long to be renewed
When you built your life on hope and fulfilled it every day
The footprints that you left behind
So, goodbye will bring us face to face
is not forever,
You're only steps away.

Robin Young, 59, of Orient, passed away Tuesday, March 29, 2022 at Faulkton Area Medical Center.

Robin Jean Johnson was born February 5, 1963, in Leavenworth, KS to Robert Dean and Margaret Elayne (Elving) Johnson. She grew up in Conde, SD and graduated from Conde High School in 1981.

Robin moved to the Ree Heights/Lower Brule areas while married to George Perkins. She then relocated to Redfield and went to work for the Redfield State School. Robin met and married Ed Smith, they moved to Ipswich where they operated a local bar. Robin returned to Redfield after their marriage and returned to work at the state school. In 1994, Robin met Rex Young through a mutual friend. She would spend her time off caring for Rex and enjoying their visits. On October 8, 1994, they were married. In 1997, due to health issues, Robin was placed on disability and was only able to help with small jobs. She worked for the Orient Bar, the Ponderosa, Town of Orient, and Faulkton School.

In 2010, Rex and Robin adopted her two nephews, Matthew and Robert, who they had been raising. They all enjoyed their family nights together. Robin also enjoyed convertible rides, camping, collecting ceramic angels, and watching either the food network or shows about hauntings.

In 2021, Robin was diagnosed with Fibromyalgia. This was just another battle in her long history of illness. However, Robin never stopped fighting!

Robin's life will forever be cherished by her husband, Rex of Orient; her sons: Matthew of Watertown and Robert of Orient; mother, Margaret Johnson of Aberdeen; siblings: Ginny Johnson of Aberdeen, Bobby Johnson of Aberdeen, and Mike (Evelyn) Johnson of Aberdeen; brothers and sisters-in-law: David and Betty Young and Dori Young; foster brother, Alan Gibson; and nieces and nephews: Shannon, Tika, Aubrey, and Brody.

She was preceded in death by her father, Robert Johnson; brother-in-law, Chuck Young; and sister-in-law, Dorinda Dow.
