

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Robert “Bob” Raymond Potter, 72, of Seneca, entered his heavenly home Friday, September 16, 2022, at his home surrounded by family and under hospice care following a brave two-year battle with pancreatic cancer.

Bob was born July 12, 1950, in Faulkton, SD to Raymond and Mildred (Schraeder) Potter. He graduated from Faulkton High School in 1968 and went on to attend Northern State University for one year. His farming career began in 1971 in Seneca and continued through 1999. He moved to Seneca in 1973 and lived there until he passed. After farming, he worked road construction with Foothill Construction out of Webster until 2020. While living in Seneca, he belonged to the Seneca Fire Department and was a past mayor. Bob enjoyed fishing, baking, gardening, and canning, and he was well known to share his produce with many neighbors and friends.

Bob is survived by sisters: Nancy (Clayton) Theobald of Brookings, SD, and Mary (Doug) Mushel of Crossville, TN; brother: Roger (Lori) Potter of Faulkton, SD; special friend: Vickie Gardner of Seneca; nieces and nephews: Kellee (Dan) Kriese of North Sioux City, SD, Shana (Jesse) Wagers of Harrisburg, SD, Jamie Leska of Lake Geneva, WI, Sara (Adam) Reich of Hudson, KY, and Amber Potter of Faulkton, SD; great nieces and nephews: Kyla and Kale Kriese, Keira, Cooper, Rylee and Reagan Wagers, Colt, Wesson, and Remington Reich.

He is preceded in death by his parents and grandparents.

Memorials may be directed to Avera@Home Hospice, 801 E. Sioux, Pierre, SD 57501 or Oakland Cemetery, 201 Elm St, Seneca, SD 57473.
