

In Loving Memory of Richard Gerald Weyand

January 5, 1930 March 11, 2023
Faulk County, South Dakota Faulkton, South Dakota

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Richard “Dick” G. Weyand, 93, of Faulkton, passed away Saturday, March 11, 2023, at Faulkton Senior Living.

Richard Gerald Weyand was born January 5, 1930, in Faulk County, SD, to Oscar and Clarice (Hall) Weyand. He graduated from Faulkton High School in 1948.

After high school, Dick entered the United States Army, serving as a radar mechanic. Following his honorable discharge, he returned to Faulkton to work alongside his father on the family farm. He later bought the Albert Kleeblatt farm. Dick spent years working the land, raising Chiangus cattle and thoroughly loving all that farming brought to his life.

Faith was a huge part of Dick’s life. He was a lifetime member of the United Church of Faulkton and gave freely of his time as a Sunday School teacher and helping others get to Sunday services. He was also a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and served many years on the township board. On Sunday afternoons, Dick enjoyed life at Lake Faulkton. He spent afternoons in his boat pulling water skiers around the water, always making sure they all had a great time.

Dick is survived by his brother, Roger of Georgetown, TX; sisters-in-law: Johanna Weyand of Faulkton and Charlene Weyand of Utah; brother-in-law, Ernie Stuebner of North Wildwood, NJ; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings: Mary Stuebner and Marvin and John Weyand.

In Loving Memory

Dick Weyand
