

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

ZACH GLAESMAN

August 2, 1993
Pierre, South Dakota

June 7, 2008

FEELINGS

We feel sad,
for what we have lost.
We feel happy,
for what we have had.
We feel poor,
for the empty spaces.
We feel rich,
for we have each other.
We will cry,
for what we can't have.
We will laugh,
for our memories abound.
We will hurt,
for the love we can't give.
We will rejoice,
for the love we have received.
We will be restless,
for our lives are not whole.
We will be peaceful,
for we know it is not forever.

Zach Glaesman, age 14, of Gettysburg, passed away Saturday, June 7, 2008, at Sanford Medical Center in Sioux Falls.

Zachary (Zach) Steven Glaesman was born on August 2, 1993, in Pierre, SD to Steve and Nadine (Jaragoske) Glaesman. He lived his entire life in the Gettysburg area.

Zach loved hunting, fishing, watching football, listening to music and hanging out with friends. While in school, he enjoyed football, wrestling, track and basketball. He was also involved in FCCLA.

When Zach turned 14 and got his drivers license, his request was to be an organ donor. Knowing his parents weren't in favor of this, his words to them were, "Why shouldn't someone else live if I die very young?" Because of his caring and generous spirit, four people continue to live.

He is survived by his parents, Steve and Nadine of Gettysburg; two sisters, Amy (Dallas) Almond of Huron, SD and April (Jayson) Drake of Tea, SD; two nieces, Whitney and Macey Almond of Huron; two nephews, Ayden Almond of Huron and Matt Drake of Tea; grandmother, Ethel Jaragoske of Gettysburg and many aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

Zach was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Al and Inez Glaesman and maternal grandfather, Robert (Buster) Jaragoske.
